BACKGROUND & RATIONALE

Water scarcity and climate change are increasing pressure on territories and agri-food production. The session explores how the agri-food sector can turn water stewardship from a challenge into an opportunity for territorial resilience, through collaboration and concrete investments that deliver environmental, economic and social value

OBJECTIVES

Objective 1: Promote water stewardship as a strategic priority for the agri-food sector. Objective 2: Identify concrete solutions and partnerships that improve water efficiency and regenerate territories. Objective 3: Promote collaboration among businesses, agriculture and institutions to create shared environmental, economic and social value

TARGET AUDIENCE

Policymakers, Institutions stakeholder, Agro-industrial Enterprises, media stakeholders

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

Concrete deliverables: Key recommendations for strengthening collaboration between companies, agriculture and institutions, to bring solutions, best practices, collaboration arrangements and concrete ideas to the attention of policymakers
